

Victor Holmes

Victor Holmes came to Martinsburg High in 1974 as a teacher and a coach. While at MHS in addition to his teaching duties, he served as a coach of numerous sports.

As assistant varsity football coach, he worked with running backs and defensive backs and sent several of them on to the college level. One of these is Fulton Walker, also a member of our Hall of Fame.

Mr. Holmes also coached basketball, serving as JV and varsity coach. As JV coach, he groomed many players for the varsity team and also prepared them for college careers.

Coach Holmes greatest success came as head baseball coach. He coached three WV State Championship team, 1983, 1989, and 1995. Two of his former players, Doug Creek and Scott Bullett had careers in Major League baseball and are members of the MHS Hall of Fame.

Mr. Holmes is currently teaching in Loudan County. He assists Don Bullett in the Washington High basketball program.. He can also be heard on broadcasts of the Shepherd Ram football games. Mr. Holmes is an inductee of this year's Shepherd University Hall of Fame in recognition of his baseball prowess while a student there.

Mr. Holmes is married to Delena and they have a son, Sean.